Three Way Battle

This year the Three Way Battle is to be hosted by Thornbury Camera Club. The competition is with Sodbury and Yate and Crossbow Camera Clubs and the venue is Lacock.

We would like as many of you as possible to take part so that we can come up with some winning images. It will be held on Sunday May 15th. A map of the area showing the boundaries is at the end of this newsletter.

The Photography Show

The Live Stage will host a range of experts, demonstrating the techniques behind some of those unique images in a variety of environments, from posing new borns to capturing the illusion of magic and fun at the circus.

Food photographer William Reavell will be there presenting styling tips for food photography. Other speakers will include Street Photographer Matt Hart, Fashion Photographer Steve Howdle on syncing flash at high speed and Vicki Churchill on turning everyday into the spectacular.

The Photography Show offers something for everyone. Exhibitor line up includes Canon, Nikon, Panasonic, Olympus, Fujifilm, Sony, Leica, Manfrotto and many more.

Book your tickets early using promotion code PAGBTPS16 to claim special PAGB discount. (Choose your tickets and enter the promotion code just before you pay - ticket price will then be £10.95)

Map showing the boundaries for the Three Way Battle in Lacock on Sunday 15th May 2016.

The boundary to the west is the A350, to the east it is the river following the east bank. This will give you the opportunity to shoot across the river. Hither Way is the border to the south and Mons Lane to the north.

All photos must be taken between 00.01 and 23.59 on Sunday 15th May.
