Notices

We need volunteers on camera club nights to help set out the chairs before the meetings. If we have a pool of helpers, you would only need to help two or three times a year.

We also need volunteers to help with practical nights over next years programme. If you feel you can help, then please speak to a committee member.

The RPS have just opened a new space in Bristol and is currently showing the International Photography Exhibition. See <http://www.rps.org/visit>

MASTERS OF PRINT

PAGB Masters of Print is now open for Entries
The Masters of Print entry for 2019/20 is now open. You can find the rules, timetable and how to enter here. The cost of entering is only £3 per print (minimum £15) for both Individuals and Clubs. Entry deadline 18 October. This year, there is a facility to enter via your Club and there will be a trophy, and maybe prizes, for the Best Clubs.

This months pictures are by Janet Oxenham and were taken in Lavenham, one of the only remaining medieval towns in the country
